Clean Harbors Announces Pricing of Common Stock Offering

Braintree, MA – December 7, 2005 – Clean Harbors, Inc. (“Clean Harbors”) (NASDAQ: CLHB), the leading provider of environmental and hazardous waste management services throughout North America, today announced the pricing of its previously announced public offering of 2,000,000 shares of its common stock at $28.00 per share. The Company expects to complete the sale of these shares on December 13, 2005. Clean Harbors also has granted its underwriters a 30-day option to purchase up to 300,000 additional shares to cover over-allotments.

The net proceeds from the shares sold will be used to redeem 35% of the Company’s outstanding 11.25% senior secured notes due 2012.

The lead underwriter of the offering is Credit Suisse First Boston. Needham & Company, LLC and Wedbush Morgan Securities are acting as co-managers. The offering is subject to customary closing and market conditions.

A registration statement relating to the common stock being offered has been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and was declared effective today. Copies of the prospectus may be obtained by visiting the SEC’s website at www.sec.gov or by contacting Credit Suisse First Boston, One Madison Avenue, Prospectus Department, New York, New York 10010-3629 (Telephone number: 212-325-2580).

This announcement shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy, nor shall there be any sale of the common stock in any state in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such state.

The Company undertakes no obligation to revise or publicly release the results of any revision to these forward-looking statements. Furthermore, all financial information in this press release is unaudited, and may change materially upon completion of the audit of the Company’s financial statements. A variety of factors beyond the control of the Company affect the Company’s performance, including, but not limited to:

- The effects of general economic conditions in the United States, Canada and other territories and countries where the Company does business;
- The effect of economic forces and competition in specific marketplaces where the Company competes;
- The possible impact of new regulations or laws pertaining to all activities of the Company’s operations;
- The outcome of litigation or threatened litigation or regulatory actions;
- The effect of commodity pricing on overall revenues and profitability;
- Possible fluctuations in quarterly or annual results or adverse impacts on the Company’s results caused by the adoption of new accounting standards or interpretations or regulatory rules and regulations;
- The effect of weather conditions or other aspects of the forces of nature on field or facility operations;
- The effects of industry trends in the environmental services and waste handling marketplace;
- The effects of conditions in the financial services industry on the availability of capital and financing;
- The Company’s ability to manage the significant environmental liabilities, which it assumed in connection with the CSD acquisition; and
- The availability and costs of liability insurance and financial assurance required by governmental entities relating to our facilities.

Any of the above factors and numerous others not listed nor foreseen may adversely impact the Company’s financial performance. Additional information on the potential factors that could affect the Company’s actual results of operations is included in its filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, and its subsequent reports on Form 10-Q, which are filed with the SEC and the Annual Report on Form 10-K/A for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004, which the Company filed on April 29, 2005, and subsequent quarterly and/or other reports filed with the SEC since then, which may be viewed on the Investor portal of the Company’s Web Page at www.cleanharbors.com.
